CALGARY PENSIONERS NEWSLETTER

Dec 2023

Laurie Rupert was back in full swing for the directors meeting on the 5th of December. Good to see Laurie feeling better and in the Presidents chair again. Right now, we are focusing on the December 12th general meeting at 12noon. Admission will be donation to the Veteran’s Association Food Bank, food, or cash. Lunch is buffet style with sandwiches donated by local grocery stores Sobeys, Co-Op and Save-On foods. Don’t forget to dress for the season!

In the November meeting the 50/50 draw was divided into 2 $50.00 winners, 1. Greg Orme, 2. Cathy Cowie.

The wine Draw had 3 winners. 1. Ray Beirnes, 2. Cathy Cowie, 3.Mhana Ekhugie.

Door prizes 8 in all.

Holiday Lights at CPKC Head Office Campus (former Ogden Shops)

Dec 14th from 5:00pm - 8:00pm, one night only!

Hot Chocolate and cookies will be served in front of Building 1 (former Steel Car Shop)

Accepting donations of food or money for the Calgary Food Bank.

CPKC's Holiday Train is returning to the rails for another festive season! The colourfully decorated train rolls into Calgary on Saturday, December 9th, with a free concert at Anderson CTrain Station.

Take Calgary Transit right to the event and enjoy live music by Canadian rock supergroup Anyway Gang. The CPKC Holiday Train is scheduled to arrive at Anderson Station at 5:45 p.m., and the 45-minute show starts at 6 p.m. The concert is free, but cash or non-perishable food donations for the Calgary Food Bank are encouraged!

This is the Holiday Train's 25th year raising money, food, and awareness for local food banks in communities along the CPKC network, across North America. All donations collected in Calgary will go to the Calgary Food Bank.

Parking at Anderson Station will be limited. We strongly encourage you to take transit to this event.

Check out the CPKC Holiday Train website or Facebook page for more details.
